Shosenkyo Gorge

Shosenkyo Gorge, situated north of Kofu in Yamanashi, is celebrated for its awe-inspiring natural beauty. This scenic gorge, a jewel within the Chichibu Tama Kai National Park, boasts a plethora of picturesque trails and breathtaking vistas. Visitors can delight in the tranquil Arakawa River, marvel at the unique rock formations, and admire the majestic Sengataki Waterfall.

Kofu winery

Kofu, nestled in Yamanashi, is celebrated for its vineyards and wineries, particularly for the exquisite wines made from the indigenous Koshu grape, a variety cultivated in Japan for over a thousand years. The region's sunny climate makes it an ideal location for viticulture. Visitors can explore renowned wineries such as Kofu's most historic winery, Sadoya winery.

Isawa Onsen (Hot Springs)

Isawa Onsen, nestled in the heart of Yamanashi, stands as one of the largest hot spring resorts in the region. Celebrated for its abundant and mild alkaline spring water, Isawa Onsen boasts a variety of bathing facilities, ranging from traditional Japanese ryokans to Western-style hotels. Visitors can revel in the soothing hot springs, renowned for their therapeutic benefits for neuralgia, muscle pain, joint pain, and overall relaxation.

Lake Tanuki

Lake Tanuki, nestled near Mount Fuji in Shizuoka, is a serene destination known for its stunning views and tranquil atmosphere.

Shiraito Falls

Shiraito Falls in Fujinomiya, Shizuoka, is a stunning 150-meter-wide waterfall fed by Mount Fuji's spring water. As part of the Fuji-Hakone-Izu National Park and a National Natural Treasure, visitors can enjoy a short walk to the base, admiring the beautiful scenery and refreshing atmosphere.

Fujisan Hongu Sengen Taisha Shrine

Fujisan Hongu Sengen Taisha Shrine, in Fujinomiya, Shizuoka, is the head shrine of over 1,300 Sengen and Asama shrines. Built over 1,000 years ago to appease Mount Fuji's eruptions, it serves as a spiritual site for climbers to pray and purify themselves before ascending the mountain. The shrine showcases unique architecture and beautiful cherry blossoms in spring.

Gotemba Peace Park

Gotemba Peace Park, in Shizuoka near Hakone, offers beautiful views of Mount Fuji. Visitors can enjoy a tranquil Japanese garden with a pond, guardian dogs from various Asian countries, and a peaceful atmosphere.

Mt. Kintoki

Mt. Kintoki situated on the boarder of Oyama town, Shizuoka and Kanagawa stands at an elevation of 1,212 meters and is famously known as the backdrop for the legendary Japanese folk tale of Kintaro. From the peak, you can enjoy a spectacular and intimate view of Mount Fuji.

Odawara Castle

Odawara Castle, located in Odawara City, Kanagawa, is a reconstructed Japanese castle originally built in the mid-15th century. The castle offers exhibits on its history, beautiful cherry blossoms in spring, and a view of the surrounding park and city from the top floor. Nearby, you can also find a Ninja Museum and a Samurai Museum.

Yugawara Onsen (Hot Springs)

Yugawara Onsen, nestled between mountains and the ocean in Kanagawa Prefecture, is a serene hot spring town renowned for its mineral-rich waters. Perfect for a tranquil retreat, visitors can luxuriate in rejuvenating onsens, explore scenic trails, and immerse themselves in vibrant local culture and festivals.
